Support Livingston Cares Through Payroll Deduction

UNITED WAY Greater Rochester and the Finger Lakes

You can support Livingston CARES through the United Way of Greater Rochester and the Finger Lakes' annual campaign. Livingston CARES is a newly approved Donor Options agency, allowing donors to designate their gifts to our organization.

When completing your United Way pledge form, simply list Livingston CARES — Donor Options Agency #3464 as the recipient of your gift. It's an easy way to give back locally and support our work to strengthen community connections and help our neighbors.

Live outside the Greater Rochester and Finger Lakes region? You may also be able to designate your United Way gift to Livingston CARES—check with your local United Way or workplace campaign coordinator for instructions.

State employees – including those who work at SUNY Geneseo can support Livingston CARES through SEFA – the State Employees Federated Appeal.

When completing your SEFA pledge form, simply list 66-00437 Livingston County Cares, Inc. as the recipient of your gift.

Meet Our New Community Board Member, Julie Matthews

Julie Matthews, a 1993 graduate of SUNY Geneseo, is a CPA and currently works as a Director of Finance for a large non-profit in Rochester. In addition to her professional career, she has supported Livingston County Cares with accounting and tax guidance since the Organization was founded back in 2005. As a board member, Julie brings a deep understanding of the Organization's financial operations, history and mission. She has resided in Livingston County for over 30 years where she has volunteered in several other organizations, including the Geneseo Central School District's Board of Education, Special Olympics, Girl Scouts, Odyssey of the Mind and Girls on the Run. She is honored to share her financial knowledge and support the Organization in this new way as a Board Member.

Find Your Opportunity to Give Back

Looking for a meaningful way to make a difference close to home? Livingston County CARES' volunteer webpage helps connect residents with local organizations seeking volunteers. Whether your interests include helping animals, supporting families, protecting the environment, or celebrating arts and culture, the page offers a starting point for exploring ways to get involved. It also links to Volunteer United, an initiative of the United Way of Greater Rochester and the Finger Lakes, which helps connect volunteers with opportunities that match their interests, skills, and availability.

Whether you have a few hours to share or are interested in an ongoing commitment, volunteering is a rewarding way to support your neighbors and strengthen our community. Visit www.livingstoncountycares.org/volunteer—and take the first step toward getting involved!
